IMPORTANT CONVENTION

The Farmers of Illinois on the Cost of Transportation of Farm Products.

BLOOMINGTON, April 21.-The Convention of Illinois Farmers met yesterday to consider the subject of transportation of farm products. A letter was read from Governor Palmer, severely reflecting pon the exorbitant charges of railroads or transportation, and expressing the ope that an effort would be made to convince the people that they have the power to rid themselves of the burden of which they complain. The Convention adopted esolutions desouncing the rates charged by the railroads as exorbitant; opposing the present system of delivering grain to warehouses owned by private individuals, thus subjecting shippers to unreasonable charges and trauds, and denying that the people have surrendered their boasted rights to railroad companies.

The resolutions also declars that the water channels are the only practicable checks upon railroads in charges for freight transportation, and the Constitutional Convention should modify its ac-tion regarding can improvements. The present rates for the sportation are de-clared unreasonable and oppressive. A spatch was read from the Chicago Board Trade indorsing the movement. A committee was appointed to organize town and county transportation leagues.
